Following the change of tyres to Hankook and the subsequent setup recommendations we will also now mandate that all cars that have fitted the longer damper eyelets, now also fit spacers on the rear upright bolt. This allows for increased droop to be achieved. Spacers should be fitted above and below the rose joint as shown below.

The part number for the spacers is SU0050

For parts supply please contact: stores@radicalsportscars.com